Harika	My family member's plants are getting sick, and they wish there was a website to find plant remedies quickly.	Better Homes and Gardens	Mostly users like Better Homes and Gardens because it has lots of helpful home improvement ideas.	It has too many ads, which can make it a bit cluttered and distracting.	Make the website easier to navigate for finding home improvement ideas.	25	F	MS
Gayatri	My friend can't find her favorite chocolate store in a new state, so she wants to make a website to help chocolate lovers find nearby stores.	See's Candies	It offers a wide variety of delicious candies and chocolates to choose from, making it easy to find sweet treats for different occasions and preferences.	The website doesn't show all available candy flavors and options, making it hard to choose my favorites.	Add an easy-to-use store locator for finding nearby See's Candies shops.	21	F	B.Tech
Teja	Roommate wants one website for all outdoor activity info.	All Trails	It provides lots of information about hiking and outdoor trails in different places, making it easy to find a great trail to explore.	Hard to find easy trails. This might be a concern for users who are looking for simpler or beginner-friendly hiking trails and find it challenging to locate them on the website.	Add more beginner-friendly trail options.	25	M	MS
